- a) To a lawyer representing AthletesCAN;
 - b) To collect a debt the individual owes to AthletesCAN;
 - c) To comply with a subpoena, a warrant or an order made by a court or other body with appropriate jurisdiction;
 - d) To a government institution that has requested the information, identified its lawful authority, and indicated that disclosure is for the purpose of enforcing, carrying out an investigation, or gathering intelligence relating to any federal, provincial or foreign law; or that suspects that the information relates to national security or the conduct of international affairs; or is for the purpose of administering any federal or provincial law;
 - e) To an investigative body named in the Act or government institution on AthletesCAN's initiative when AthletesCAN believes the information concerns a breach of an agreement, or a contravention of a federal, provincial, or foreign law, or suspects the information relates to national security or the conduct of international affairs;
 - f) To an investigative body for the purposes related to the investigation of a breach of an agreement or a contravention of a federal or provincial law;
 - g) In an emergency threatening an individual's life, health, or security (AthletesCAN must inform the individual of the disclosure);
 - h) If it is publicly available as specified in the regulations; or
 - i) If otherwise required by law.

Limiting Collection, Use, Disclosure and Retention

20. AthletesCAN shall not collect, use or disclose personal information indiscriminately. Information collected will be for the purposes specified in Article 11 except with the consent of the individual or as required by law.
21. Personal information shall be retained as long as reasonably necessary to enable participation in AthletesCAN, to maintain accurate historical records and or as may be required by law.
22. Documents shall be destroyed by way of shredding and electronic files will be deleted in their entirety.

Safeguards

23. Personal information shall be protected by security safeguards appropriate to the sensitivity of the information against loss or theft, unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use or modification.
24. Employees will be made aware of the importance of maintaining personal information confidential and may be required to sign confidentiality agreements.

Individual Access

25. Upon written request, and with assistance from AthletesCAN, an individual may be informed of the existence, use and disclosure of his or her personal information and shall be given access to that information. As well, an individual is entitled to be informed of the source of the personal information along with an account of third parties to whom the information has been disclosed.
26. Requested information shall be disclosed to the individual within 30 days of receipt of the written request at no cost to the individual, or at nominal costs relating to photocopying expenses, unless there are reasonable grounds to extend the time limit.
27. An individual may be denied access to his or her personal information if:
 - a) This information is prohibitively costly to provide;
 - b) The information contains references to other individuals;
 - c) The information cannot be disclosed for legal, security or commercial proprietary purposes;
 - d) The information is subject to solicitor-client or privilege.
28. Upon refusal, AthletesCAN shall inform the individual of the reasons for the refusal and the associated provisions of the Act.
29. Sufficient information shall be required to confirm an individual's identity prior to providing that individual an account of the existence, use, and disclosure of personal information.
